Duration: 45 minutes

A breathtaking and heartwarming story of African music and dance and poetry. It is a mirror of Zimbabwe's rich culture told in dance and music. It also chronicles life in Zimbabwe and tells the story of day to day life from the villages to the city seen through the eyes and tribulations of the young and the old. In colour and splendour the young creatives show how Zimbabwe's music and dance has developed over the years and what makes its people tick, from traditional to modern times. From the villages to the majestic streets of the city townships (ekasi), their velvet voices and sleek dance moves will leave the audience clamouring for more. It is vibrant, captivating, powerful and emotionally engaging. When the show begins you never want it to end... but all beautiful things do come to an end!
